

anzea Conference 2013 scholarship eligibility information and application form

The scholarship funding is intended to support the participation of individuals or community-based organisations who would not otherwise be able to attend the Conference, that is, those for whom financial support for this kind of professional development is not available.

Sponsorship categories:

- Māori delegates
- Pacific delegates
- New settler/migrant delegates
- Full-time tertiary student delegates (university, polytechnic and wānanga)
- People working in community-based organisations (Not-for-profit and NGOs)

Scholarship cover

- Scholarships cover Conference registration, lunches, teas and happy hour attendance at the Conference and up to $100 towards travel costs.
- They do not include attendance at Pre-Conference Workshops or the Conference dinner.

How do you apply?

The application form is below. Your application must be accompanied by a letter or email from a person who can endorse your eligibility under the category you are applying for; for example:

- For students, a letter or email signed by the Head of Department or similar at the institution you are attending, verifying that you are undertaking a course of full-time study at an accredited tertiary institution (Letters or emails of verification must be on the letterhead of the organisation verifying your eligibility).
- For unwaged, a letter or email of endorsement from someone who knows you well and can verify your status. This might be a community leader or someone of high standing in your community (e.g. kuia, kaumatua, Justice of the Peace, etc.) OR a letter or email signed by Work and Income New Zealand verifying that you are in receipt of a benefit.
- For community-based participants, a letter or email of endorsement from a Manager (or similar) of the organisation you will be representing, verifying that you are representing that organisation.

- For Māori, a letter of endorsement from a Kuia or Kaumatua, Marae committee chairperson, or similar Māori organisation (e.g. Kohanga Reo).
- For Pacific, a letter of endorsement from a community leader (e.g. Church Minister, or a senior representative from a Pacific organisation).

NOTE

- Scholarships will be limited to a maximum of one per organisation.
- Approval of an application is specific to the individual (not transferable).
- Scholarships will not be offered to 2012 anzea Conference scholarship recipients.
- The anzea Conference Committee reserves the right to allocate the funding based on the applications received.
- All decisions will be made by the anzea Conference Committee. Decisions will be final and binding, and no correspondence will be entered into.
- Applications close 5pm Monday 24 June 2013.

You are very welcome to contact the anzea Conference Manager Jackie Bourne at info@anzea.org.nz or on 0800 382 582 for help to make a scholarship application.
